Marge Schott

President & Chief Executive Officer

Marge Schott is the First Lady of Cincinnati baseball, serving as the President and Chief Executive Officer of professional baseball's oldest franchise.

Providing Reds' fans with quality entertainment has been the top priority during Mrs. Schott's tenure as owner of the Reds. A native and sixth generation resident of Cincinnati, Mrs. Schott was a Limited Partner in the team since 1981 and then became the General Partner of the ownership group on Dec. 21, 1984. She became President and Chief Executive Officer on July 8, 1985.

Mrs. Schott has helped bring back the excitement of Reds baseball to Riverfront Stadium, while providing the leadership and financial support needed to build a winning team and keeping ticket prices among the lowest in the major leagues. The Reds have drawn more than 14 million fans to Riverfront in her seven years as the club's principal owner. Season ticket sales have reached new team highs.

Mrs. Schott saw her dreams come true in 1990 when her Reds went "wire-to-wire" to win the National League Western Division championship and then went on to capture the NL pennant, followed by a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland.

Mrs. Schott led the Reds' World Series victory parade and celebration at Fountain Square in downtown Cincinnati and she headed the team's contingent honored by President Bush at the White House following the Series.

In addition to the enjoyment of watching the Reds on the field, Mrs. Schott has had some thrills away from the Stadium as well. In 1989, she had lunch at the White House with President Bush; was a special honoree at a Women in Business luncheon during the President's Inauguration Week festivities; and has made two baseball goodwill visits to Japan, representing Cincinnati and the Reds.

Among other highlights were a 1988 visit to the Vatican, where she presented the Pope with a Reds' jacket; a feature interview on the "60 Minutes" TV show; and a salute by Savvy Magazine as the operator of one of the 40 largest businesses in the country to be headed by a woman.

In Dec., 1986, she was among 85 women entrepreneurs from all over the country who were honored by President Reagan at a White House reception. Earlier that year, she was named Woman of the Year by the American Legion Auxiliary at its national convention. Mrs. Schott was singled out for having made significant contributions to community life. She was inducted into the Communiplex Women's Hall of Fame for women in sports in 1987 and received an honorary degree from Maryville College in St. Louis in 1991.

Mrs. Schott was inducted into the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame in Nov., 1985, for her achievements in business, industry and athletics. A year earlier, she was honored as one of the 1984 Women of the Year in Cincinnati. She is well-known for her role as hostess for the Reds' Rally, a major fund-raiser for the Children's Heart Association at Children's Hospital, and for her work with the famed Cincinnati Zoo. She is the Honorary Chairman of the Zoo's Education Program.

Mrs. Schott became a businesswoman by necessity when her husband, Charles, died in 1968, leaving her in charge of a business empire that included such divergent holdings as an auto agency, cement, truck and brick companies and real estate. She has since added holdings of her own.

It took her 2½ years to convince General Motors to make her the first U.S. woman ever to be awarded a major metropolitan area G.M. dealership. Later, she became the first woman ever named to the board of trustees of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Schott is one of only two women currently involved in primary ownership of a major league baseball team, joining Mrs. Jean Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox, who took over her team upon the death of her husband.

BOB QUINN, Vice President & General Manager

Quinn is in his third year with the Reds. He joined the club on Oct. 13, 1989, and was a key architect in building the 1990 World Champion Reds. His efforts were rewarded with his selection as Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News — selected in a poll of his peers. Quinn engineered trades that brought reliever Randy Myers, infielders Hal Morris and Bill Doran, and outfielders Billy Hatcher and Glenn Braggs to the Reds.

Bob's extensive baseball background began with two years (1959-60) as General Manager of the Eau Claire team. After several years in private business, he returned to baseball as GM of the Reading Phillies (1967-68) & the Omaha Royals (1969-70). He was named Class AA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News in '67 and American Association Executive of the Year in '69. Quinn joined the Milwaukee Brewers as Director of Minor League Operations in 1971. He spent 12 years with Cleveland, beginning in 1973 as Director of Scouting & Minor League Operations. He was promoted to Vice President/Player Development & Scouting in 1980. Quinn joined the New York Yankees in Sept., 1986, as Assistant VP and was promoted to VP/Baseball Administration the following month. He was named VP & GM in June, 1988.

Quinn's grandfather, J.A. Quinn, was GM of four major league teams. His father, John, was GM of the Boston and Milwaukee Braves for 23 years and the Philadelphia Phillies for 13 years. A graduate of Marquette University, Quinn was born in Boston. He and his wife, Kathryn, have two sons, Mike and Bob.

Lou guided the Reds to their first Western Division title since 1979; their first NL pennant since 1976; and then a stunning World Series sweep over Oakland . . . Despite a shortened spring training, Lou had his team ready to go when the regular season began . . . The Reds set a team record by winning their first 9 games and then stayed in first place the entire season to become the first NL team to go wire-to-wire in a 162-game season . . . The Reds defeated Pittsburgh in the NLCS as Piniella became the third person in major league history to play and then manage in Championship Series games (joining Dave Johnson & Hal Lanier) . . . He resigned that position in May, 1988, to assume other responsibilities with the team, then returned to the dugout as manager on June 23, replacing Billy Martin . . . The team finished 45-48 under Piniella, giving him a managerial record of 224-193 (.537) with New York. . He was a special adviser for the Yankees in 1989, as well as a Yankee TV broadcaster . . . Piniella worked with his New York teammates as a batting instructor from 1981 until his retirement as an active player in June, 1984 . . . He was a coach from that time until being named manager after the 1985 season . . . Piniella's overall managerial record (Cincinnati & New York) is 389-352 (.525).

PLAYING CAREER: Piniella had a long, distinguished career as a player, including 18 major league seasons in a 23-year pro career . . . He appeared in four World Series, batting .319 in 22 games, and in five Championship Series, batting .305 in 18 games . . . Lou moved around a lot in the early days of his career . . . After signing into the Cleveland organization in 1962, he was drafted by the Washington Senators after his first pro season, traded to Baltimore where he made his major league debut in 1964, swapped back to Cleveland in 1966 and was then claimed by Seattle in the 1968 expansion draft . . . Went on the DL the following day and was out for the remainder of the season . . . Braggs' 11 home runs in '91 included the first 2 pinch-hit homers of his major league career . . . Enjoyed another big season in 1984 with Stockton as he was named California League MVP and Rookie of the Year . . . Activated June 11 and pitched 6 innings of 1-run ball for a 6-1 win in Montreal that night. . . After 1 more start, went back on the DL on June 17, again with tendinitis in the shoulder. . . Activated on July 19 and pitched exclusively out of the bullpen the rest of the season, with outstanding results — 0-0 record, 0.84 ERA (4 ER, 42.2 IP), 1 save and 40 strikeouts in his 28 relief appearances. . . Pitched 17.2 innings of scoreless ball (10 hits) in his final 13 relief outings.

CAREER: Charlton spent 2 seasons, 1984 and 1985, as a starting pitcher in the Montreal farm system before moving to the Reds' organization in 1986. . . He was a major factor in Vermont's Eastern League championship in '86. . . In his last 11 starts, Norm posted an 8-1 mark with a 1.99 ERA, then added 3 more wins in the playoffs. . . He set a Vermont record with 13 strikeouts in his last start. . . He sat out much of 1987 because of an elbow problem, but bounced back in 1988 in a big way when he got his first major league experience. . . Norm spent most of the season with Nashville, where he led the American Association with 161 strikeouts, ranked 2nd with 8 complete games and earned a place on the post-season All-Star team. . . That earned him a mid-August promotion to Cincinnati, where he was moved into the starting rotation for the rest of the season. . . After a rocky debut vs. the Cardinals, he had a 3.39 ERA for his other 9 starts, allowing 3 runs or less 8 times. . . After spending his entire pro career as a starter, Charlton switched to a relief role in 1989 and produced excellent results. . . He was 8-3 with a 2.93 ERA in 69 games, while averaging more than 1 strikeout per inning (98 in 95.1). . . He fanned a career-high 10 batters in a 4.1 inning relief outing in San Francisco on Sept. 14. . . Charlton was a key member of the Reds' "Nasty Boys" bullpen in the first half of the 1990 season, pitching mostly in a setup role. . . Because of injuries to starters, Norm then moved into the starting rotation at mid-season. . . Made his first start since 1988 (after 108 consecutive relief appearances) on July 15 and pitched 6 innings of 2-hit shutout ball for 2-1 win over New York. . . Fired a 3-hitter for 7-0 win over the Giants on Aug. 10 for his first major league complete game and shutout. . . In all, Charlton was 6-5, 2.60 in 16 starts and 6-4, 3.02 with 2 saves in 40 relief outings. . . Returned to the bullpen late in the regular season in preparation for his post-season relief role. . . Norm was 1-1, 1.50 (1 ER; 6 IP) in 5 post-season outings. . . He lost Game 1 of the NLCS vs. Pittsburgh and won the Game 6 pennant clincher. . . His only World Series appearance came in Game 2 (with no decision), pitching 1 scoreless inning.

PERSONAL: Norman Wood Charlton III and his wife Nancy (Pfannenstiel) live in Jamaica Beach, TX. . . 1981 graduate of James Madison H.S. in San Antonio and a 1986 graduate of Rice University where he had a triple major in political science, religion and physical education. . . Charlton earned All-America honors at Rice and had a taste of international competition as a member of the U.S. team in the World's Fair tournament in Knoxville in 1982 and as a candidate (up to the final cut) for the 1984 Olympic team. . . He was a 1st round draft selection by Montreal in June, 1984.

Bats: Left

Throws: Right

ACQUIRED: Reds' No. 1 draft choice, secondary phase, June, 1983. (Scout Mickey White)

1991 SEASON: Dibble ranked 2nd in the National League with a career-high 31 saves (in 36 opportunities) — the most saves by a Reds' right-handed reliever since Clay Carroll saved 37 games in 1972... Averaged 13.6 strikeouts per 9 innings (124 SO in 82.1 IP) — the highest rate in modern major league history (minimum 100 strikeouts), breaking his own previous record of 12.8 in 1989... Fanned 6 straight batters in Houston on Apr. 23, tying the NL one-game relief record... Pitched 13.2 innings of 5-hit shutout ball with 7 saves in his 10 outings in May, then earned NL Pitcher of the Month honors for June (0-0, 1.69; 10 saves in 10 opportunities)... Was 23-for-23 in save opportunities at All-Star break (0-0 record, 1.29 ERA) and pitched 1 scoreless inning in his second straight All-Star Game appearance... His 23 straight saves equalled John Franco's (1988) NL mark for consecutive saves without a blown save... After dominating hitters in the first half of the season, Rob was inconsistent in the second half, going 3-5, 5.13 with 8 saves... Stranded 34 of the 42 runners he inherited during the season... His 31 saves in '91 included at least 1 against every NL team... The hard-throwing right-hander, who has topped the 100 mph mark on radar guns many times, has 460 strikeouts in 338.2 IP in his big league career, an average of 12.2 SO per 9 innings.

CAREER: Rob was primarily a starter during his first two seasons in the farm system... Pitched for Billings and Eugene in 1983... Went 5-2 with a 2.92 ERA at Tampa in 1984... He switched to the bullpen in 1985 at Cedar Rapids, where he made good use of an excellent fast ball, striking out 73 batters in 65.2 innings, while recording 12 saves and 5 wins... Rob became the ace of the Vermont bullpen in the middle of the 1986 season... His June-July figures for 19 appearances included a 2-1 record, 10 saves and a 1.99 ERA... That earned him a promotion to Denver, where he injured his left knee and worked just 5 innings the rest of the season... Dibble struck out 51 batters in 61 innings in 1987 at Nashville... Rob dominated American Association hitters in 1988, when they hit only .172 against him... His 13 saves (in a half-season) ranked 2nd in the league and earned him a promotion to the Reds... He was one of the best rookie relievers in the NL... He worked 2 perfect innings in his debut in San Diego on June 29 and had 9.2 shutout innings over his first 6 outings... Dibble finished with a 1.82 ERA in 37 relief appearances, fanning 59 in 59.1 innings, limiting opposing hitters to a .207 average... Dibble established himself as the premier strikeout pitcher in the NL in 1989 in his first full season in the major leagues... He struck out 141 batters in 99 IP — an average of 12.8 per 9 innings — the best ratio in modern baseball history (a mark he later topped)... His 141 strikeouts set a Reds' team record for relievers... Opponents hit only .176 against him... Ranked 2nd in the NL with 74 games pitched, despite spending 2 weeks on the DL in July with an elbow problem... Struck out the side on 9 pitches in the 8th inning vs. San Diego on June 4... Rob was named Male Athlete of the Year from Connecticut for 1989... Dibble was a major force in the Reds' 1990 "Nasty Boys" bullpen as he pitched in a team-high 68 games with an 8-3 record, a 1.74 ERA, 11 saves and 136 strikeouts in 98 innings (an average of 12.5 SO per 9 IP)... Opponents hit only .183 against him, the best mark among NL relievers... Named to the NL All-Star team for the first time and pitched 1 scoreless inning in the All-Star Game... Excelled during the Reds' stretch drive to the Western Division title, going 4-0 with 3 saves and a 1.08 ERA (4 ER; 33.1 IP) from Aug. 9 through the end of the regular season... Dibble was sensational in post-season play, pitching 9.2 innings of 3-hit shutout ball with 14 strikeouts in 7 games, while recording 1 win and 1 save... Pitched in each of the first 4 NLCS games vs. Pittsburgh, earning a save in Game 4 and sharing NLCS co-MVP honors with teammate Randy Myers... Rob worked in each of the first 3 World Series games vs. Oakland and picked up the win in Game 2 (2 scoreless innings)... Took part in a Major League All-Star post-season tour of Japan... 1991 SEASON: Doran was slowed by season-long back problems in his first full year with the Reds . . . Played in 111 games — the lowest total of his big league career (since his first full year in the majors with Houston in 1983) . . . Most of Bill's playing time came at second base, but he also played left field (6 games/5 starts) and first base (4 games/2 starts) for the first time in his major league career . . . Hit .333 in April, but back trouble sidelined him in mid-May . . . On DL from May 13-June 4 with lower back disk inflammation . . . After he was activated, he swung a hot bat (hitting .375 on 27-72 for month of June) and played very well defensively (48 consecutive errorless games at second base from June 4-Aug. 9) . . . Doran's batting average was .309 at the All-Star break . . . Struggled in August, hitting .183, then finished strong with a .328 average for September/October . . . Reached a career milestone with stolen base #200 on Sept. 4 at Philadelphia . . . Selected by the Cincinnati chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of their first Good Guy Award.

CAREER: Doran was Houston's 6th round draft choice in June, 1979, out of Miami Univ. in Oxford, OH . . . Played his first full pro season in 1980 with Daytona Beach . . . Named to the Southern League All-Star team in 1981 and earned Pacific Coast League All-Star honors in 1982, when he hit .302 and stole 48 bases . . . Called up to the major leagues for the final month of the '82 season . . . Hit .271 in 154 games for Houston in 1983, finishing 5th in the NL Rookie of the Year voting . . . He put together a career-high 15-game hitting streak in 1984 (July 30-Aug. 15) . . . Doran was named Astros' team MVP in 1985, when he hit .287 with 31 doubles and 14 homers . . . In 1986, Bill helped lead Houston to the NL West title . . . He hit .276 with 29 doubles and ranked 5th in the league in steals (42) and walks (81); 7th in runs (92); and 10th in on-base percentage (.368) . . . Hit safely in 4 of the 6 NLCS games vs. the Mets, including a home run in Game 3 . . . The 1987 season saw Doran earn team MVP honors for the second time as he hit .283, while tying a club record by playing all 162 games and posting career highs in at-bats (625), hits (177), homers (16) and RBI (79) . . . His homer and RBI totals set team records for a second baseman . . . He was NL Player of the Week for the first time in his career — Aug. 17-23 (14-26=.538; 2 HR; 9 RBI) . . . Led NL second basemen in fielding (.992), making only 6 errors at second base . . . Doran led the league in fielding again in 1988 (.987), but suffered through an injury-plagued season . . . He was sidelined with left shoulder, left hamstring and back injuries . . . Had left shoulder surgery after the season to repair damage to his rotator cuff . . . Hit his first career grand slam on Aug. 2, 1988 at San Francisco off Randy Bockus . . . Doran's 1989 season began with arthroscopic right knee surgery in spring training . . . Riverfront Turf History

Riverfront Stadium's artificial playing surface was installed prior to the 1988 season. The AstroTurf-8 allows water to flow through the surface to a drainage system and virtually eliminates standing water, making the field playable minutes after a rain. Water flows through the turf to permeable asphalt and crushed rock below. The new surface has fewer seams than previous surfaces at Riverfront Stadium. A synthetic warning track was also installed. This is the third AstroTurf surface at Riverfront. The original (1970) was replaced prior to the 1979 season.

History of the Reds

The history of professional baseball begins in Cincinnati, where the "ancestors" of the current Cincinnati Reds, The Red Stockings, began play more than a century ago.

That first professional team, led by Harry and George Wright, played on a spot where Union Terminal on Cincinnati's near West Side now stands. Its first recorded game was a practice contest against a "Picked Nine" from Cincinnati, April 17, 1869, which was won by the Red Stockings, 24-15. After six more games of this first "pre-season," the Reds embarked on their famous tour. The first regular game was scheduled against the Antioch Nine on May 31, but that became the first rainout in professional baseball history. The first official game took place the next day, June 1, 1869 as the Red Stockings defeated the Mansfield Independents, 48-14.

That first Red Stockings team that was organized by Harry Wright, a Newport, Ky., jeweler, was fabulous. During the first two years of play the team went 130 consecutive games without a loss before the Brooklyn Atlantics finally beat the Red Stockings in June of 1870.

In 1876, the National League was founded and the Red Stockings became a charter member, although the club dropped out of the league in 1881 for 9 years because the league would not permit sale of beer in the park. The Red Stockings joined the American Association for the 1882-89 seasons, but rejoined the National League in 1890. Cincinnati also had a club in the Union Association in 1884.

The turn of the century saw one of the most colorful men ever associated with the team take over the presidency of the club. August "Garry" Herrmann was the club president from 1902 until 1927 when he was forced to retire because of blindness.

A host of famous players paraded through the Herrmann regime. Noodles Hahn was a standout pitcher and Cy Seymour won the Reds' first batting championship, hitting .377 in 1905, a mark that still stands in the Cincinnati record book.

And later came Edd Roush, an all-time great centerfielder, and Heinie Groh, the famous third baseman who used a bottle bat. They formed the nucleus of Cincinnati's first pennant winner in 1919 and then beat the Chicago White Sox in the World Series.

Players such as Eppa Rixey, who holds the club record with 179 career wins, and Bubbles Hargrave, the first catcher ever to win a batting title, kept the Reds in the running during the 20's, but there wasn't another pennant until 1939.

After Herrmann resigned control of the club in the late 20's, Sidney Weil assumed command. When the depression crippled him, Powel Crosley purchased the Reds, more for civic purposes than any other cause. It was strongly rumored that the Cincinnati franchise might be moved and Crosley felt that the city needed a major league baseball team.

Crosley, the famous radio tycoon, was sold on the franchise by Larry MacPhail, the club's general manager. MacPhail, who had made a name for himself at Columbus, was one of the early promoters and opened up a new era of baseball when the Reds became the first team to play at night. Lights were installed at Crosley Field and the Reds and Phillies met in the first night game on May 24, 1935.

Two years later, a new chapter opened in Cincinnati as Warren Giles was named the club's general manager. Although the Reds finished last in Giles' first year, the team began to move in 1938, jumping to fourth. By 1939 the club had matured into the National League's best. The Reds won back-to-back pennants in '39-'40 and captured the World Series in 1940, beating the Detroit Tigers in an exciting seven-game series.

Some of the great names of Reds' history were on those clubs. Paul Derringer, Bucky Walters and Johnny Vander Meer were well-known pitchers. Ernie Lombardi, Frank McCormick and Walters were Most Valuable Player winners.

World War II and age caught up with the Reds in the 40's and the club began rebuilding in the late 40's and early 50's. Ewell Blackwell became the first pitcher to pitch in six consecutive All-Star games. Ted Kluszewski was signed off the Indiana University campus.

Giles left the Reds in 1951 and was named president of the National League. His successor was Gabe Paul, who put together a powerful hitting team in the mid-fifties. The Reds nearly won the pennant in 1956, losing by two games to Brooklyn, but the fans fell in love with this team. The Reds hit the million mark in paid attendance for the first time and in '56 they tied the NL record for the most team home runs with 221. Birdie Tebbetts was named Manager of the Year.

Manager Fred Hutchinson took command of the Reds in 1959 and in '61 they startled most baseball "experts" by winning the NL pennant. Frank Robinson, who had been Rookie of the Year in 1956, was Most Valuable Player, and Vada Pinson nearly won the batting title. Under Hutch, who died of cancer in 1964, the Reds remained close. They won 98 games in 1962, but finished third. They came within one game in 1964.

Rumors again spread in 1966 that the Reds would leave Cincinnati. They were silenced quickly, however, when a group of businessmen, headed by Francis L. Dale, purchased the Reds and pledged allegiance to the city with a 40-year lease, thus assuring construction of a new stadium.

The group named Bob Howsam general manager in 1967, and six years later he moved up to the club presidency.

Sparky Anderson became the manager in 1970 and guided the team for nine seasons, leading them to five Western Division titles; four National League pennants; and two World Championships.

The Reds moved into Riverfront Stadium June 30, 1970, ending a long association with Crosley Field, and before that Redland Field. A total of 4,543 games were played at the old park which was officially dedicated April 11, 1912. It was Redland Field then and became Crosley Field after Crosley purchased the Reds.

Riverfront Years

Reds fans said goodbye to Crosley Field and the first century of baseball's oldest professional team June 24, 1970 and six days later, a little over two years after the first spadeful of dirt was turned, Riverfront Stadium opened to a crowd of over 50,000 cheering fans.

From 1970, when the team won its first Western Division title, through 1979, when it won its sixth divisional race, the Reds won more games and more titles than any other major league team.

The Reds piled up 953 regular season victories in the ten years of the 1970's, an average of 95.3 per season with a .593 winning percentage and an impressive mark of consistency.

Reds fans saw a total of 12 championships by the Reds, six Western Division titles (1970-72-73-75-76-79); four National League titles (1970-72-75-76); and back-to-back World Championships in 1975 and 1976.

General Manager Bob Howsam put together this "Team of the 70's" that earned its nickname of the "Big Red Machine." It was a team that excited fans everywhere, building a national following and attracting 21 million fans to Riverfront Stadium in the 10-year period.

At the heart of the team were four individuals — Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Tony Perez and Pete Rose — who were totally different in makeup, style and personality, but who were on a common path pointed toward the Hall of Fame. Among them, they provided power, speed, defense, clutch hitting and stability. Bench (1989) was the first to be inducted into the Hall at Cooperstown, followed by Morgan (1990).

The Reds so dominated the National League that they won MVP titles 6 times in an 8-year span. Bench won in 1970 and 1972, when he led the NL in both homers and RBI; Rose in 1973, when he led the league in hitting for the third time; Morgan in 1975 and 1976, only the second NL player ever to win two consecutive seasons; and George Foster in 1977, when he set club records with 52 homers and 149 RBI. Perez was never MVP, but earned an unmatched reputation for clutch hitting. Bench and Perez ranked 1-2 in the majors in RBI for the 70's.

Surrounding them were outstanding players such as Dave Concepcion, who teamed with Morgan to give the Reds a double play combination who each won 5 Gold Gloves; Ken Griffey, who batted .307 in 9 years with the Reds; Foster, who averaged 32 homers and 107 RBI over a 7-year period; and Cesar Geronimo a 4-time Gold Glove winner.

Other memorable moments came in 1978, when Rose hit in 44 straight games, a modern NL record, and Tom Seaver pitched a no-hitter.

In 1981, Seaver became only the fifth pitcher in major league history to reach 3,000 career strikeouts. It was also a year in which the Reds had the best overall record in baseball, but did not qualify for post-season play because of the split-season, finishing second in both the first half and second half races.

The 1983 season marked the return to the Reds of Bob Howsam, architect of the "Team of the 70's." A year later, Howsam brought back Rose, who had been away for nearly six years, as playing manager.

Ownership of the team changed hands in December, 1984, when local businesswoman Marge Schott took control as General Partner.

Riverfront Stadium was the site of Rose's historic 4,192nd hit, breaking Ty Cobb's all-time major league record on Sept. 11, 1985. Tom Browning pitched the first perfect game in team history on Sept. 16, 1988 at Riverfront. Third baseman Chris Sabo earned National League Rookie of the Year honors in '88.

After finishing second in the NL West four consecutive years in the late 1980's (1985-88), the Reds returned to championship form in record-setting fashion in 1990.

Mrs. Schott brought in Bob Quinn as general manager and Lou Piniella as manager to begin the new decade. They helped guide the Reds to their first Western Division title since 1979 and their first National League pennant and World Series crown since 1976.

The "Wire-to-Wire" Reds won their first nine games in 1990 — setting a team record for consecutive wins at the start of a season — and went on to become the first NL team to stay in first place every day of a 162-game season.

The Reds defeated Pittsburgh in a thrilling League Championship Series, then stunned the powerful Oakland Athletics with a four-game World Series sweep.

Quinn was named 1990 Major League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News.

The 29-year old Berry spent seven seasons as a player in the Reds' organization, rising to the Triple-A level at Nashville in 1987. The former catcher/first baseman hit .260 or better in all but one of his professional seasons, posting a high mark .330 in his first pro season at Billings in 1984. He was team MVP at Tampa in 1986. The 30-year-old former catcher played in the Reds' organization from 1980-86, spending most of the 1984-86 seasons at the Triple-A level. He also coached at Tampa and Sarasota in 1986, then became a full-time coach with Vermont in 1987.

GLOSSARY OF MEDICAL TERMS

AC JOINT—Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ANTERIOR—In front of; the front surface of.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT—A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY—Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTHROGRAM—X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPY—A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

BONE SCAN—An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bony injury (particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures).

CARTILAGE—Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT SCAN—Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CONCUSSION—Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION—An injury to muscle and tissue caused by a blow from a blunt object.

DISC—A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

FEMUR—Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

FIBULA—Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

HAMSTRING—Group of three muscles that run from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh.

INFLAMMATION—The body's natural response to injury characterized by various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

LABRUM—The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder; a lip-edge or lip-like structure.

LATERAL—To the outside of the body.

LIGAMENT—Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage, and supports and strengthens joints.

MRI (MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING)—Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL—To the inside of the body.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENTS—Ligaments of the knee and elbow along the medial aspect that connect bones to joints.

MENISCUS—Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. They work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

POSTERIOR—At the back part, or rear, of the body.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT—A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES (QUADS)—A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella (kneecap); they are responsible for knee extension.

ROTATOR CUFF—Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse.

ROTATOR CUFF IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME—A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff. 2) Fiber disassociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation. 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm. 4) A complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SHIN SPLINT—A catch-all phrase describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPRAIN—Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint, causing various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN—Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE—A hairline break in a bone caused by overuse.

TENDINITIS—Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON—Bond of tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TIBIA—Larger of the two bones of the lower leg; the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

ULNAR NERVE—Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all inclusive, nor should it be used as a substitute for a physician's diagnosis and/or description of an injury or illness. For further definitions, please refer to the Stedman's Pocket Medical Dictionary, published by Williams and Wilkins.

Rules of Interest

PLAYER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat (at bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide hits plus total walks plus hit-by-pitch by at bats plus total walks plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies. (Times awarded first base on interference or obstruction are not figured into on-base percentage.)

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

BATTING AND ERA CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: 502 or more plate appearances; 162 or more innings pitched.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING MAGIC NUMBER: To figure "Magic Number" in pennant race, compute the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings of the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE: Pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions: (1) he is the finishing pitcher in game won by his club; (2) he is not the winning pitcher; (3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; (b) or he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base or at bat or on deck; (c) or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

NIGHT GAME: A night game is any game with a scheduled starting time later than 5 p.m.

DISABLED LISTS

15-day—No limit on number of players per club

60-day (Emergency)—No limit on number of players, but may only be used when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players. (Players carried on this list do not count against 40-man under control limit. If placed or transferred here after August 1, player must remain through end of season and post-season.)

Day 1 is day following player's last game appearance. Reinstatements may be made beginning Day 16 or 61, respectively; after minimum period has expired player may be reinstated at any time (except in certain "Emergency" cases—see above).

There shall be no assignment of a player by a Major League Club to a National Association Club while such player is on a Major League Disabled List; provided, however, that with the Player's written consent, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the Player's Association, and with the approval of the League President, a player on the disabled list may be assigned to a National Association Club for up to a maximum of twenty days (thirty days for pitchers) for the purposes of rehabilitation.

Note: the 21-day and 30-day disabled lists were eliminated late in the 1990 season.
